Mazda MX-5 Cup schedule

SCCA STAFF REPORT

TOPEKA, Kan. — On the heels of a widely successful inaugural season, SCCA Pro Racing has announced seven of the eight rounds set to compose the 2007 SIRIUS Satellite Radio Mazda MX-5 Cup Presented by Hankook season. While classic road racing venues return in 2007, the schedule is also highlighted by temporary street and airport courses shared with the likes of ALMS, Grand-American and Champ Car.

The season kicks off April 14 and 15, when the MX-5 Cup cars will take to the streets of Houston, Texas, for the Lone Star Grand Prix as part of an American LeMans Series-Champ Car World Series combo weekend.

Teams go to Monterey, Calif., to join the Grand-American series at Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca for the U.S.

Sports Car Invitational, May 19 and 20.

The series next goes to Portland, Ore., where it will be part of the Champ Car World Series weekend, June 9 and 10. MX-5 Cup will stick with Champ Car for the following round at Burke Lakefront Airport in Cleveland, Ohio, June 23 and 24. The event will be a double-header for MX-5 competitors and marks the first time the series has competed on an airport circuit.

The series travels north of the border to Trois-Rivieres, Quebec, Canada, Aug. 18 and 19, as part of the Grand Prix de Trois-Rivieres with the Grand-American series.

The MX-5 Cup series continues on with the Grand-American camp to Miller Motorsports Park, hitting the Tooele, Utah, track Sept. 14 and 15.

The last round of the Mazda MX-5 Cup season will be announced later.
