RENTON — The Northwest Region honored members for their years of service at the region's annual banquet Feb. 17, with 38 members attending.

The evening started with a social hour and a slide presentation of region activities from the past 53 years and a photo display board.

Mark McCloskey was presented with the region's Stan Burnett Inspirational Award.

The Joan and Frank Manley Enthusiast Award went to Gretchen Everett.

The Mary Pang Unsung Hero Award went to Kevin Needham.

John Forespring was awarded a plaque for his six years as regional executive.

The region's Joe Henderson award was not presented this year.

Members were honored with their attendance of five, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30 and 35 years. In addition, Frank Manley was noted for his 52 years of SCCA membership. He joined SCCA on Oct. 1, 1954.

The Northwest Region honored the following members at the annual regional banquet Feb. 17 for their years of continuous membership:
