Bernie Doud Sportsmanship Award: Presented to a race worker who has exhibited outstanding sportsmanship qualities in the conduct of their race duties, the Bernie Doud Sportsmanship Award was established in memory of a race worker who was killed at a NWR event at Arlington. The 2008 winner is Dave Kentala.

The Pat Pigott Memorial Award is given by the family of Pat Pigott who was killed while driving his Lotus 23 in a race at Riverside Raceway in 1962. It is awarded annually to an outstanding West Coast driver who competes in an under 2-liter car. The 2008 winner finished first in class (F500) in both NWR/Montana Double National races, the Thunderhill Double National races and first at June Sprints. He won the Divisional points race and is a member of San Francisco Region. The 2008 award goes to Jeff Jorgenson.

community, to build the understanding that this is a great club and phooey with the Secret Car Club aspect. The winner this year has been a driver ... in fact, a Trans Am driver along with Tom. He got together with Rick Stark and built a 1969 Camaro that Rick campaigned in the Trans Am races. The winner raced for many years beginning in the '60s and into the early '70s. After a hiatus, he returned to SCCA and is now a steward and serving as NWR's Race chairman. The 2008 winner and the first to receive the Tom "Elder" Masterson "Boomer" Award is Ken Jones.
