

SOVREN does it in the dry

While SCCA racers toughed out a cold, wet weekend of racing over Memorial Day, racers at SOVREN's Pacific Northwest Histories July 2-4 enjoyed generally nicer weather.

Left: Jon Shirley races his beautiful 1957 Maserati 300S.

Below: Mark Adams in a 1969 Jaguar XKE passes Reg Hoole's 1967 Ford Mustang down the back straight.

Jim Culp photos / www.prorallypix.com

SOVREN didn't get perfect weather for the Pacific Northwest Historics.

Right: Eric Haga heads toward turn nine in the rain. Haga also drove this 1969 Lola T-190 in the 1970 SCCA Continental Champaionship for Formula A cars when the track was named Seattle International Raceway.

Below: Greg Whitten celebrates the 100th anniversary of Alfa Romeo with his 1932 Alfa P3.

Jim Culp photos / www.prorallypix.com

